

into a "crystal ball" to find the magic genii which never comes. Why? This happens to us when we fail to overstand that we are the "crystal ball" and that we are the "genii" of our lamp which is our life. Keep the FIRE burning!

WE MUST LOOK TO KRIST/ CHRIST!

LOOK TO KRIST/CHRIST (YAH'S LOVE) WITHIN! SAVE THE WORLD! O, HU-MANITY! BE AT-ONE (ATONE) IN YAH'S AWARENESS!

ONE MIND, ONE BODY AND ONE SOUL!
KNOWING YAH-SELF IS YAH'S AWARENESS!

When you have a relationship built on true love (KRISTLOVE), it can and will weather the storms. No matter what, love is the key to a happy life. Don't deny yourself or others comfort to reach heaven. You should try to extend that same comfort to others that the higher Source has blessed you with. If you have a true loved one it is your duty because of your (Yah's) love to love them. Never reject a loved one because of real or imagined pain. Instead work out the kinks in the relationship remembering that unity and peace can only be shared in love. The art of sharing is the art of loving. If you want to be first and the number one, the numero uno, you must learn to accept being the last. Once I said to myself, "Yah has humbled all my ambitions." The Spirit of Wisdom returned the reply that, "Once you humble yourself, all your ambitions will be achieved." On the basis of that revelation I write this. The reason being due to the fact that that one seemingly insignificant thought based on self-examination was the key to a whole new overstanding. An overstanding which helps one to be last in order to be first and to be thought wrong in order to be known right. Do good and Live!

Make sure that what you want to do is what you need to do and that you haven't neglect anyone in your ambition. If you do neglect anyone, especially a loved one, your soul will be the judge. As long as you have life you have the choice to walk in the right direct regardless of walking astray. FIRST, YOU MUST FORGIVE YOURSELF! KRIST'S LOVE IS THE REMEDY! The prodigal son (?) is loved not because he wasted his inheritance but because he returned to the one whom he offended and neglected. RETURN UNTO ME, BE NOT OFFENDED AND I WILL FORGIVE YOU! I HAVE FORGIVEN YOU ALREADY! COME HOME! COME, SO SA YS MY SPIRIT! We must be careful to right the wrongs which we do to others first and not seek vain "apologies" to ourselves. That's the egos which have to go that ask for one to say, "I'm sorry." Instead of YOU (YAH-SELF) saying "I'm sorry" or "I was wrong" it would be better to say that, "I've learned by what I did, let's work it out." Give the wronged person (you and me) your full co-operation and support when you realize that you have been unfair. One can only say that the other is "unfair." What they really should ask themselves is, "Am I being fair?" "Am I asking for something which I feel would make me happy?" Most people are just like most other people. YAH KNOWS! They need to be told and re-told things to make them remember. "Don't forget to LOVE." Let us hear from you. What you have to say matters to US. YES, WE CARE! DO YOU? NOW IF YOU DO PLEASE REMEMBER TO LOVE ONE ANOTHER! REMEMBER, WE'RE STILL WAITING FOR YOU TO COME HOME. COME HOME, COME OUT OF BABYLON MY PEOPLE. PEOPLE, PEOPLE... GET READY! WRITE TO US WHEN YOU ARE READY! DON'T DELAY! IF YOU DON'T WRITE, WE'LL KNOW THAT YOU ARE NOT READY! WE LOOK FORWARD TO HEARING FROM YOU SOON YAH LOVE! AMEN. WRITE TO AMEN R.A.S. C/O:

68TH CHAPTER 10TH VERSE OF THE AQUARIAN GOOD NEWS.

"WHEN YOU PURIFY YOUR HEARTS BY AMÊN (FAITH), THE NEGUS (KING; ZION'S RULER) WILL ENTER IN AND YOU ALL WILL SEE HIS MELIK (FACE; IMAGE)."

In All Ways Remember The Poor And Needy!

ASK, SEEK, KNOCK! Ask Yah-self this: What shall I study? Yah will answer: "YOURSELVES!" Study Your Own Selves. Study yourself and you will see! What do we mean? The "Gods" of the modern man are but "demons" of yesterday who are said to be all powerful BUT are full of jealousy, hate and lust. Wood and stone is still worshipped today in the the form of dollar bills (wood/ paper) and cents (coins/ copper/ silver/ gold). Many believe that the dollar bill is "all powerful" and they never have enough. Oh my people! Some people feel as though "money" can buy happiness and reject the LIVING for the dead wood of the tree which is promised and exchanged for pro-misses. Money is a "god" of the "dead presidents." Doesn't it make sense that if money couldn't keep the "dead presidents" alive, to this day, that it won't keep you alive to-morrow? When the "dollar" crashes, the greatest idol of the 20th century will perish. Money is a tool. You're fooling yourselves if you think otherwise. BE WISE. READ ON! You cannot make love to a tool no more than you can make love to a car. Can you? If you can, keep it to yourself. You're sick and are going to perish if you love money and use it to control people. Love your people and use your money to better your family, community, nation and planet. Money cannot buy my LOVE. Can it buy yours? How much? So cheap? Good things are priceless. So if your "love" has a price, it can't be any good. Save it. Save yourself. YAH (Jah) LOVE is the Salvation, the Healing of the Nations. ÊloH.I.M. (God) is the Family; the Father, Mother and Child is the TRINITY (Selassie in Ethiopic). SAVE THE ETHIOPIC-BLACK FAMILY! LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS SELF (RAS)! WE ARE ALL WE HAVE! REMEMBER...

We are LIONS and LIONESSES, LAMBS and EWES. Our "state" of peace must be carefully balanced in order for us to MAN-IFEST the true "Selamta." We are by nature SELAMA-WI (a Peaceful be-ing). The LIFE is our Law which is written upon Our hearts in LOVE. Whenever we feel "unpeaceful", we recognize that we are unsure of something. This something is not given a name because we attempt to hide the fact that we may just be the problem or cause of the disorder. Are you trying to deny that we have a role or responsibility which as life goes on increases not diminishes? Experience for the most part equals life or the fundamental element of life which is motion or activity. We must full take and not just take a part. To take a "part" would be a mistake. WE NEED THE FULLNESS! We must realize who we are and what we need. WE NEED EACH OTHER TO RESPECT

EACH OTHER AND THE LIFE! Amên. We must become willing to become willing. Amên. We must become agreeable to the idea of agreeableness. Amên. We must make our "inner" and "outer" one. Let us cease the duality and concentrate on the unity. Everything that seeks "separateness" for the sake of distinction, pride or 'show' is not worthy of being one with the whole. On the other hand, when we learn that we are by our very births and re-births different one from another, we will be able to better 'see' what we really have in common. Sometimes we feel that we are so different, so special and so much better than another that we cannot take second place. This is due to plain old ignorance of the "self." When we overstand within ourselves that "I AM that I AM" (EXODUS 3:14; REVELATIONS 3:14) means, we will be able to avoid many pitfalls. In life, the unity of the living is greater than the living because without unity the living would be 'dead.' So, in other words, we must take second place, become the second "I am" of the above statement and realize that it takes both eyes to see. One eye may appear to be working "better" than the other, but this is an illusion because the two eyes see for one head. The one head doesn't say, "Alright, I'll do without the weaker eye." This would be like putting a blindfold on the seeing eye dog. This wouldn't be wise in the long run. Yet this type of logic which many of you use all day. We constantly get rid of that which we need but don't fully overstand. Then WE UNFOLD, WE GROW! As we learn by experience and inner-sperience (meditation) we come to find the middle ground. (This is the balance of "In I" and Me and You.) The ground where we can accept the differences and see the similarites. This is the first step towards TRI-UNITY. We must make that step a firm one by making ourselves firm in the knowledge of self. This know-how or knowledge enables us to get to the root of the problem, ourselves. Once we un-cover the dis-ease we can re-cover the ease we once had. We all experienced this "ease" when we were much younger. Most people felt like they belonged to the world as a child because people rarely discriminate against a "baby." After all it is known that babies and infants are not harmful. So we learn to trust them as they learn to trust us. But notice what happens when something goes wrong between a child and an older adult or parent/ grand-dian. Automatically a breach is created between child and adult because of something real or imagined. It could have been that the parent or older adult disciplined the child and the child didn't like being told that they were wrong. So what happens from here? Usually we as the child-become-adult go throughout our lives recalling and rehearsing the past as if we could change the present. We think about what we feel about what happened. We think about how embarrassing an incident was and how we felt about it. Normally, there is nothing wrong in this by itself. Everyone has the right to feel good or bad. In fact, the Bible even says, "Be angry, but don't let the sun go down on your wrath" (Ephesians 4:26). This is to indicate that anger or "feeling bad" or "upset" is normal but to let a season change with the storm sti! there means that another season will be stormy. Most of us feel "upset" about things and situations which really don't involve us directly. We feel as though its our duty to be the watchperson for all real or imagined problems. We feel that if we don't say anything, nothing will be done. We don't realize at these times that "something" is always done. While you're alive (active) there is always something being done. This is the life which we miss when we mistake "being upset" for setting ourselves up emotionally, mentally and spiritually for a fall. Once fallen we then see clearly what went wrong and what we did. We want to be forgiven only to do the same thing again. What did we do before? What was it that was "wrong" about our actions and perception? The answer lies in doubt. Doubt causes dis-unity, dis-order and death. Doubt causes one to "dis" or disrespect themselves. In essence, doubt in the goodness of life and the truth of nature causes us to believe that the future will be "bad" if we don't do some action which shows our unwillingness to co-operate. We don't co-operate (operate in harmony) because we are always looking at what "we" are and "who" we think we are. We often say, "I..." to this and "I..." to that as if it were "God's" voice speaking through our own. What we forget is that divinity is united to that which is like it and causes unity amongst that which is not like it. When we say "God" we don't mean just what one may think is "good" or in their "best interest." By definition, "God" means "life" and in "life" there is "good and evil." FORGET ABOUT "DUALITY"! TRI-UNITY AND DO GOOD! As you may know from your own experience, life is a combination of the cycles or "seasons" of the "good and evil." Today was not as "good" as yesterday but we know by faith in the higher consciousness that tomorrow will be better no matter what happened today. How do we know this? Naturally! We may assume that since we are "life" we also have the ability to receive the "good and evil" even if we are uncertain about the distant or immediate future. Often we spent too much time dwelling on looking
